Isafjordur, Iceland

ISF-006 EXPLORE THE STREETS OF ISAFJORDUR ON FOOT

Date: Aug 24, 2026 Time: 09:30 AM, 12:30 PM
Duration: 2.00 Hrs Price: €127.00

OVERVIEW

Mix with the locals on a walking overview tour of the largest and liveliest town in the West Fjords. Surrounded by dramatic mountains and arcing into its namesake fjord on a curving spit of land, it's tempting to envision Isafjordur as a remote and unworldly outpost. But on this survey of town, you'll soon discover that there's a surprisingly cosmopolitan vibe afoot here, blending seamlessly with an undeniable frontier character. The old town still has blocks lined with some of Iceland's oldest wood-and-tin houses, built by the early fishing merchants who found prosperity here in the 18th and 19th centuries, but it's also home to a thriving arts and emerging culture scene. Though isolated, Isafjordur is the kind of place that independent and eccentric thinkers have always been drawn to. Your knowledgeable guide will relate some of that history and lead the way as you soak up the town's relaxed ambiance and most interesting sights. One of those will surely be the Maritime Museum out at the tip of the spit. Set up inside one of the town's oldest and best-preserved houses, the exhibits include an excellent collection of maritime artifacts – as well as a sizable accordion collection.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Enjoy an escorted walk through a town with one foot squarely in the past and another in the current culture.
- See some of the Iceland's oldest and most lovingly preserved tin-roofed wooden houses.
- Learn about this remote city's intriguing history and unexpected worldliness.
- Tour a Maritime Museum in an 18th-century house where the historic fishing artifacts and accordion collections mingle.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Wear weather-appropriate clothing including a water/wind proof jacket.
- Comfortable, flat walking shoes with a non-slip sole are recommended.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen as needed.

PLEASE NOTE

This tour includes approximately 2 hours of moderate walking. The tour is not available to wheelchair guests and not recommended for those with mobility concerns.

ISF-007 A VISIT TO AN ABANDONED VILLAGE

Date: Aug 24, 2026 Time: 09:30 AM
Duration: 4.50 Hrs Price: €200.00

OVERVIEW

Travel from Isafjordur to the Jökulfirðir Fjord by boat to visit a remote village deserted by all its residents over 60 years ago. The only way to get to Hesteyri is from the water; it's about a 70-minute ride. The tiny settlement never did have any roads leading to it, and no electricity or telephone links. What it did have – and still does – is an outstandingly picturesque setting amidst steep snow-dusted mountains and quiet, secluded coves. Notwithstanding the natural beauty, in the 1940s the 80 inhabitants decided they'd had enough, and by 1952 the last of them had moved away. Many of their structures still stand, little changed from how they were then. And since the village has been an ecologically protected area for decades, the native flora and fauna have had a field day. Hikers here often encounter Arctic foxes, seals, and birds of many types. You'll stroll around the eerily empty village with your guide, enjoying traditional Icelandic refreshments at a house where the doctor used to live. Don't miss this chance for what will certainly be an excursion unlike any other you take this voyage. It can get quite chilly out at sea, especially since the boat is only partially covered—so be sure to dress warmly for maximum comfort during your adventure.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Travel about 70 minutes by boat from Isafjordur to a tiny village along the Jökulfirðir Fjord. No one's home there.
- Enjoy an eerie tour of an entire settlement that was abandoned by its residents in 1952.
- Learn the unusual history of this place from your guide and share traditional Icelandic refreshments at the house where the village doctor once lived.
- Be on the lookout for foxes, seals, and sea birds; this has been a wild protected reserve for many years.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Wear weather-appropriate clothing including a water/wind proof jacket. It can be colder out on sea and the boat is only partially covered.
- Comfortable, flat walking shoes with a non-slip sole are recommended.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen as needed.

PLEASE NOTE

The tour is not available to wheelchair guests and those with mobility concerns are cautioned to carefully evaluate their personal level of ability before participating. Those prone to motion sickness should take the necessary precautions. It can get quite chilly out at sea, especially since the boat is only partially covered—so be sure to dress warmly for maximum comfort during your adventure.

You will have the opportunity to watch for these fascinating creatures from inside the boat or out on the observation deck. It is a breathtaking sight to see humpback whales acrobatically breaching the water's surface, waving their flukes up and down as they dive, and feeding to fatten up for their winter migration south. Minke whales are quite a bit smaller, but no less impressive. They have sharply pointed snouts that appear first when they breach. Although minke whales are typically solitary, they are inquisitive and are often spotted swimming alongside vessels or feeding beneath flocks of seabirds. If you see one, it will be a mesmerizing sight that you will not soon forget.

Duration: 2.25 Hrs Price: €274.00

OVERVIEW

Cruise through the pristine waters off the Westfjords peninsula to observe the huge numbers of seabirds that flock there during the summer. It won't take long to reach a prime viewing area as there are massive colonies of seabirds along the coastal cliffs and on nearby islands such as Vigur. Although you will likely spot thousands of arctic terns, eider ducks and black guillemots, Atlantic puffins tend to be the showstoppers as these black-and-white birds sport bright orange beaks and feet that make them exceptionally photogenic. Often called "sea parrots," puffins spend most of their lives on the water. They are also skilled flyers, reaching speeds up to 55 miles per mile, which is surprising in light of their stout appearance. field of mud-pots, steam vents, boiling springs and fumaroles; it's a world of incredible color and loud popping earth bubbles. Nearby in Dimmuborgir, the scene is all lava arches and peculiar formations that have led to many a mystic folktale. In contrast, the lakeside pseudo-craters at Skútustaðir don't boil or bubble a bit; they're beautiful grassy pseudo-craters crisscrossed by walking paths that make this an extremely inviting site for a wetland birdwatching stroll. Plunging down in a roaring torrent from a horseshoe-shaped rim, the falls at Godafoss are among Iceland's most impressive and have an ancient legend all their own to learn about. You might hear more about this over snack/lunch at a local Skútustaðir restaurant, included in your excursion.

Húsavík is the country’s oldest settlement and the site of the first house ever built in Iceland – in the year 870. Even so, the wooden Húsavík church is the most iconic structure because of its unusual pulpit and interior paintings. Film buffs may recognize Húsavík as a setting for the 2020 movie “Eurovision Song Contest: The Story of Fire Saga,” starring comedian Will Ferrell. Its Academy Award-nominated theme song references the whales that are so abundant in Skjálfandi Bay. Húsavík is known as the Whale Capital of Iceland and you may spot some of these behemoths, including humpbacks and blue whales, while relaxing in the heated waters of the clifftop GeoSea Baths.

HIGHLIGHTS

DJU-008 WALK THE BLACK-SAND BEACHES
Date: Aug 26, 2026 Time: 09:00 AM, 10:30 AM, 01:00 PM
Duration: 2.00 Hrs Price: €164.00

OVERVIEW

Enjoy a leisurely walk along the black-sand beaches that rim the surrounding coast with a guide well-versed in the area's natural history. The black sand is the result of ancient volcanic activity that spewed dark mineral-rich lava that over time eroded into a fine granular material. The sand's darkness gives the coast an eerie, almost gothic appearance that looks even more stunning where steep mountains plunge into the sea. The guide will point out and describe some of the more intriguing geological aspects as you meander about the islands that lie just off Djúpivogur. They were once only accessible by boat, but you can now reach them by walking across natural causeways that connect the islands to the mainland. Keep an eye out for sea birds such as the common shelduck, red-throated diver and northern shoveler, a duck often seen swinging its bill in the water to filter out tiny crustacean prey.

- HIGHLIGHTS
- Walk the black-sand beaches that rim the tiny islands that lie off Djúpivogur.
 - Learn how the black sand was formed and how the area is still geothermally active.
 - Look for wildlife, particularly sea birds that flourish in the environmentally protected areas.

- HELPFUL HINTS
- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
 - Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

PLEASE NOTE

Duration: 2.00 Hrs Price: €191.00

OVERVIEW

Take a leisurely walk through Djúpivogur with a focus on its cultural side, which is quite extensive considering that there are only about 500 residents. As far back as 1589, this area was a trading center and the village's oldest warehouse is now the cultural center. But that isn't the only attraction that highlights Djúpivogur's past. At the Audunn Mineral Shop, you will get a glimpse at geological marvels such as a massive boulder sawed in half to reveal a center of agate, quartz and zeolite. It is the biggest such stone in Iceland. Perhaps even more unusual are the 34 large granite eggs perched on concrete pedestals at Merry Bay. A local artist created them in honor of the 34 species of native birds that nest in the area. The Tank is another unexpected cultural venue. This old fish oil tank is now used for art exhibitions and concerts.

OVERVIEW
Cruise to the dramatic Vestmanna sea cliffs, where thousands of birds nest for the summer. The name Vestmanna means "men from the west," supposedly a reference to the Irish monks that settled there more than 1,000 years ago. Still wild and wonderful, the area is known more for its birdlife than the village of Vestmanna, home to one of the first hydroelectric power plants in the Faroes. As you approach the craggy, weather-beaten sea cliffs, you can expect to see puffins, guillemots, fulmars and kittiwakes nesting among the rocks. The sounds of the birds and the rush of the sea will be mesmerizing. In time, the boat will enter a narrow, steeped-walled notch in the cliffs, where you may catch sight of sheep grazing above. You will also cruise into a small grotto, where you will be engulfed in total darkness, the dominant sound being the steady drip of moisture from the grotto ceiling.

- HIGHLIGHTS
- Gaze up at thousands of sea birds nesting in the craggy Vestmanna sea cliffs.
 - Observe puffins, guillemots and other seabirds and perhaps even sheep grazing above.
 - Cruise through a steep-walled notch in the cliffs and into a grotto void of light.

- HELPFUL HINTS
- Wear warm, weather-appropriate clothing; include a waterproof jacket and bag if available.
 - Flat, non-slip shoes are recommended.

PLEASE NOTE
Guests may get wet from sea spray, especially if the seas are somewhat rough. Consequently, guests should take precautionary measures to protect themselves and their camera equipment.

OVERVIEW

Marvel at the natural beauty of the Faroes on a panoramic tour of the majestic mountains and pristine waterways on volcanically formed Eysturoy Island. As you follow a circuitous route north, you will pass a whaling station in Air that was abandoned decades ago and then cross a bridge that spans the narrow channel of Sundini, where you will pause to gaze down at the swirling eddies that the strong current form. The bridge connects the larger, more populous island of Streymoy, where Tórshavn is located, to the rural island of Eysturoy. The natural highlights on the latter include the tallest mountain in the Faroes, steep-walled Gjógv Gorge and the Giant and the Hag, two oddly shaped rock formations just offshore. Be sure to ask the guide about the legends behind them. To enhance your understanding of Eysturoy's rural lifestyle, you will pass idyllic villages such as Eiði, a setting that offers magnificent views of the fjord.

HIGHLIGHTS

- See the natural wonders of the Faroes, in particular those on wild Eysturoy Island.
- Admire the Faroes' highest mountain, a deep seaside gorge and two sea stacks.
- Pause at a bridge spanning two islands and view the strong eddies swirling below.

Duration: 3.00 Hrs Price: €91.00

OVERVIEW

Take in the natural beauty of Streymoy Island from elevated viewpoints and by traveling into the less-populated areas where the terrain has changed little over the centuries. Although you will drive through historical Tinganes, where the parliament met for more than 1,000 years, and pause at a lookout above Tórshavn harbor, most of this excursion celebrates nature. Not far from town, you can still see the ancient stone cairns that mark the footpaths between villages, a reminder that time has stood still throughout much of the Faroe Islands. Another brief stop for photos will be made in Nordradalur Valley, from which you can see Koltur Island on a clear day. Deeper in the valley, you will be treated to spectacular views of the fjords below and hand-hewn stone salmon ladders that lead to Lake Leynar.

Date: Aug 27, 2026 Time: 01:15 PM
Duration: 4.00 Hrs Price: €127.00

OVERVIEW

Gain an understanding of village life on naturally beautiful Vagar, one of the Faroes' westernmost islands. To reach Vagar from Streymoy, you will drive through a modern, three-mile-long tunnel beneath the sea, a journey that was once only possible by ferry. Upon arriving on Vagar, the guide will point out the attractions and describe the local history. Like the residents throughout the Faroes, many of the people are descendants of the Norwegian Vikings that colonized the islands around the 9th century. You will get a good sense of daily life in villages such as Sandavágur, where you will visit red-roofed Midvágur church, and in Bøur, a coastal setting with classic sod-roofed buildings with black-tarred wooden walls. The latter offers a wonderful view of the Tindholmur and Mykines islands, which lie even farther west. A drive through a tunnel blasted out of the mountain will bring you to the tiny village of Gasadalur, which perches at the edge of a seaside cliff.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Drive through two modern tunnels, one under the sea, the other blasted out of a mountain.
- Explore several villages on Vagar and get a feel for the island's daily life.

Duration: 3.50 Hrs Price: €118.00

OVERVIEW

Travel through the immensely picturesque countryside of Streymoy Island with enlightening stops to view the highlights in the villages of Kollafjörður and Saksun. You will follow a circuitous route through a volcanically formed landscape that couldn't be more naturally beautiful. Upon reaching Kollafjörður, you will visit a church constructed in 1837 in the heart of town. Like many of the buildings from that time period, it features a grass roof, black-tarred wood, a white stone foundation and a modest clocktower. To reach remote Saksun, you will follow a stream deep into the mountains. Only a few dozen people live there and the main attraction is its gorgeous setting, as Saksun sits in a natural amphitheater overlooking the tidal lagoon. Date: Aug 27, 2026 Time: 02:15 PM
Duration: 3.25 Hrs Price: €127.00

OVERVIEW

Follow a trail through the volcanic terrain on Streymoy Island to the summit of a mountain that will offer breathtaking views of the natural wonders below. As an introduction to the island's beauty, you will follow a coastal road along Kaldbak fjord, where you can expect to see spectacular waterfalls and sheep lazing about the pastures. Although this part of the Faroes was inhabited in the 11th century, it wasn't until 1980 that the village of Kaldbak was even connected to the main road system. That remoteness is much of its charm. Your hike will begin at a column of basalt that defines the Streymoy sill, a geological phenomenon that an ancient volcanic eruption left behind. As you ascend to the mountain top, you will enjoy sweeping views of the hauntingly beautiful landscape below. It will be quite the sight in every direction. - See waterfalls, mountain lakes and clear evidence of the island's volcanic formation.

Duration: 3.00 Hrs Price: €109.00

OVERVIEW

Delve into the early history of the Faroe Islands in the village of Kirkjubøur as a prelude to exploring the oldest section of Tórshavn. Kirkjubøur was among the first areas settled in the Faroes and became an important religious and cultural center in the Middle Ages. The imposing ruins of the 13th-century Saint Magnus Cathedral stand as a reminder of that period, and as you will see it still dominates Kirkjubøur. You will gain a different historical perspective at the turf-roofed Roystova Farmhouse Museum, which was built about two centuries earlier, making it one of the oldest wooden buildings in Europe. The wood is supposedly driftwood from Norway as there are no forests in the volcanically formed Faroes. The same family has occupied the farm for 17 generations. To further enhance your understanding of the islands, you will take a leisurely walk through Tinganes, the historical heart of Tórshavn, the delightful capital of the self-governing Faroes.

- Visit a turf-roofed farmhouse museum that is one of Europe's oldest wooden buildings.
- Meander through Tinganes, the oldest section of Tórshavn.

Duration: 3.00 Hrs Price: €155.00

OVERVIEW

Discover landmarks that showcase the history and culture of Lewis, largest and most populated of Scotland's Western Isles. Shaped by its surrounding ocean and extreme climate, this island has been inhabited by stalwart folk for well over 6,000 years. On the west, you'll visit Gearranan – a coastal village of outstanding beauty where once-derelict homesteads are being painstakingly restored using traditional dry-stone masonry and communal thatching methods. During your visit, you'll see how generations lived together in this small-plot farming community, in "blackhouses" – long, round-cornered structures uniquely designed to keep their residents warm and dry in even the most ferocious weather. Not far from this place, where Loch Carloway carves a deep path into this craggy coastline, you'll stop to take in a 2,000-year-old circular fortified tower still clinging stubbornly to a hillside overlooking the sea. Well-known and exceptionally well-preserved, Carloway Broch still has partial walls 30 feet high, with interior galleries and stairways dramatically exposed. Before turning back inland across the moors, your circular Lewis itinerary will carry you yet further along Lewis' western coast, a region at times pounded by the full unbroken force of the North Atlantic.

remote beaches, atmospheric moorlands and peat-covered plateaus. No matter where you look, the natural beauty will be stunning. Duration: 2.75 Hrs Price: €91.00

OVERVIEW

Take the shuttle to the heart of town for an enlightening walk through the island's largest town of Stornoway and explore its landmark Victoria-era castle. The town is now better known for manufacturing Harris tweed, producing a tasty designation-of-origin black pudding and as a hub of Gaelic heritage. You will likely hear Gaelic widely spoken as you follow the guide through the pedestrian-friendly streets. Across the harbor, you will find Lewis Castle, a Gothic Revival-style icon that opium and tea trader Sir James Matheson built on the Isle of Lewis, which he also owned. The castle was converted into a naval hospital during World War II, became a college dormitory afterwards and is now a luxury hotel. While strolling the wooded grounds and gardens – which once held the widest range of exotic flowers in Scotland – you will surely be taken by the serenity of the setting.

Among them: fjord-like sea lochs, villages nestled along rugged roads ascending to majestic mountain vistas, sweeping beaches, sheer sea cliffs, ancient rocks and abundant wildlife including otters and eagles. In Tarbert, Harris Island's charming answer to a big city, you'll call on a small shop and adjacent tweed storehouse with the opportunity to purchase woolen items made here. A bit of free time in this loch-side town is followed by a drive across lunar terrain strewn with tiny inland lakes, leading to a beautiful white-sand beach framed by turquoise sea, steep dunes and even steeper mountains. SY-008 MARVAIG COASTLINE

Date: Aug 29, 2026 Time: 09:00 AM
Duration: 4.00 Hrs Price: €356.00

OVERVIEW

Explore the island-dotted western coast of the Isle of Lewis, a gorgeous seascape known for its natural beauty and abundant wildlife. After an extraordinarily scenic drive across the Isle of Lewis, you will board a boat in Maivaig, a settlement of just a few buildings. The name Maivaig is Norse for "narrow bay" and perfectly describes its setting. As you head into more open water, you will pass beautiful Reef Beach – whose sugar-white sand and turquoise waters look surprisingly Caribbean – and a collection of islands such as uninhabited Pabaigh Mòr, which is known for its sea caves. If the conditions permit, you may enter one of the caves before continuing on to the blue lagoon of Pabbay. Because this area is so remote and undisturbed, marine life such as seals, dolphins and basking sharks are often spotted. Seabirds are also plentiful so keep an eye out for gannets, guillemots and razorbills.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Cruise along the remote, sparsely inhabited western coast of the Isle of Lewis.
- Pass beautiful beaches, craggy sea caves and islands where nature reigns supreme.
- Look for seals, dolphins and seabirds, which flourish in this rather isolated setting.
- Appreciate the coastal beauty and natural wonders in the isle's interior.

Duration: 2.50 Hrs Price: €264.00

OVERVIEW

Take an exhilarating cruise through the sheltered waters off Stornoway in a high-speed vessel made for adventure. You will ride in a rigid inflatable boat – more commonly known as an RIB – which is high-powered, open-air and remarkably fast. Even so, RIBs are surprisingly stable. They allow you to reach places other boats can't and get close to marine life because of their small size and easy maneuverability. You can expect to pass landmarks around the harbor such as the Neolithic burial grounds on Gallows Hill and Lews Castle, a Victoria-era residence that now houses a luxury hotel, museum and shops. While scanning the water's surface, you may spot seals along the shore, frolicking dolphins just outside the boat's wake and large black-and-white orcas, which are easy to identify by their prominent dorsal fins. The skipper will describe marine life when possible.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Take a thrilling ride off Stornoway in a high-speed rigid inflatable boat.
- Pass historical landmarks such as Gallows Hill and Lews Castle.
- Take in the surrounding natural beauty, a hallmark of the Isle of Lewis.

OVERVIEW

Take a scenic drive across Scotland’s countryside, and a stroll through its tumultuous medieval past on a visit to Stirling Castle. Your self-guided tour will acquaint you with the castle’s central turreted gatehouse, flanking towers and curtain wall – as well as the Great Hall, Renaissance-era Palace and Chapel Royal within. DLG-007 PANORAMIC DUBLIN & IRISH COFFEE

Date: Aug 31, 2026 Time: 03:00 PM
Duration: 4.00 Hrs Price: €137.00

OVERVIEW

Take a panoramic spin through the heart of Dublin's historic center, then linger over an Irish coffee in a traditional pub. With heritage stretching back over 1,000 years and the River Liffey dividing the city plan into two distinct halves, there's a lot to be seen here in this cosmopolitan capital. One of the most famous landmarks in all Ireland is here: St. Patrick's Cathedral, the country's tallest and largest church. Completed in 1270, it stands on the holy site where St. Patrick is said to have baptized converts to Christianity. And it's got quite a past. Oliver Cromwell once stabled his horses in the nave, Jonathan Swift was Dean here when he wrote Gulliver's Travels, and the cathedral choir took part in the debut performance of Handel's Messiah. Your informative drive through Dublin will bring you past many other historical and impressive sights – including the stately dome-and-columned Four Courts building, where bullet holes in the façade remain vivid reminders of the battle for Irish independence early the 20th century. You'll have much to talk about when, towards the tour's end, a stop is made for Irish coffee in a Dublin pub that's been around while itself.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Settle back and enjoy a guided coach journey through Dublin's history-filled city center.
- See and learn about key landmarks like St. Patrick's Cathedral, Leinster House and the Four Courts.

- Top off your experience with a soothing Irish coffee, served up at a traditional pub.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Wear weather-appropriate clothing; include a light raincoat or umbrella.
- Flat, comfortable walking shoes are recommended.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen as needed.

PLEASE NOTE

This tour is primarily panoramic, with limited optional walking. The only inside visit is the pub stop. Guests must be a minimum of 18 years to be served an Irish coffee. The tour is available to wheelchair guests who have a collapsible chair, are able to make their own way on and off the coach and have an able-bodied companion to assist them. Guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to carefully evaluate their personal level of stamina before participating.

Holyhead, Wales

HOY-001 CONWY CASTLE

Date: Sep 01, 2026 Time: 07:30 AM
Duration: 4.50 Hrs Price: €164.00

OVERVIEW

Take an excursion into medieval times in the town of Conwy, where the walls and much else of its stunning namesake Castle have stood for over 700 years. From Holyhead, your journey will take you across the island of Anglesey and along the North Wales coast for a guided tour of Conwy's landmark fortress. Considered one of the most impressive of Edward I's several Welsh strongholds, construction began in 1283 and required six years and two thousand builders to complete. That might be explained by how thick and tall its ring of defensive walls were – and still are. The entire medieval village of Conwy is enclosed within their 1400-yard span, and they average 30 feet in height and up to 15 feet in thickness. Add 21 towers and 3 gateways to that tally – and that's before we even discuss the mass of the castle itself. Although partially in ruins, enough of the castle remains intact to create a dramatically atmospheric vision as it overlooks the River Conwy. Following your castle tour, wander the village's ancient cobbled streets at your leisure or join the guide for a half-hour walking stroll. Either way, you'll almost believe time travel is possible.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Travel by coach to the walled medieval village of Conwy to tour its picturesque 13th-century castle.
- Explore the ruined central structure, much of it still intact enough to get a clear sense of its layout.
- Wander a cobbled village where the calendar stopped centuries ago, or even walk a section of the 1400-foot castle ramparts that completely enclose it.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Wear weather-appropriate clothing; include a light raincoat or umbrella.
- Flat, comfortable walking shoes are recommended.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen as needed.

PLEASE NOTE

This tour includes approximately 90 minutes of walking, some of it over uneven and cobbled surfaces, with a slope and steps required to access the castle. Participants should be in good physical condition. The tour is not recommended for wheelchair guests or those with mobility concerns. Order of sites visited may vary.

HOY-002 ANGLESEY'S BEAUMARIS CASTLE
Date: Sep 01, 2026 Time: 08:00 AM
Duration: 4.00 Hrs Price: €191.00

OVERVIEW
Travel across green Anglesey by coach to visit a stunning moated castle, last-built of Edward I's 13th-century defensive dream – the so-called "Ring of Steel." Begun in 1295, it was planned to be the largest and most impregnable of his many Welsh strongholds. But Edward, popularly known as Longshanks, became distracted by big trouble brewing up north with the Scots, and Beaumaris was never finished. Still, it's often recognized as the most technically perfect castle in Britain – including by UNESCO, who has designated it a World Heritage site. The castle sits in a lovely pastoral setting, with the mountains of Snowdonia forming an impressive backdrop in the distance across the water. The structure is nearly symmetrical and has two "walls within walls" encircling it – a radical architecture for the time, which even today presents a formidable appearance. Your guided tour includes a visit to the small castle chapel; its vaulted ceiling and lancet windows make it one of Beaumaris' true highlights. Following the castle tour, a short stroll leads to a nearby hotel where coffee and cakes await. After that, a guided walk through historic Beaumaris village precedes the drive back to Holyhead.

- HIGHLIGHTS
- Enjoy a drive across Anglesey to Beaumaris Castle, renowned for its architectural design and beauty.
 - Tour this unfinished but spectacular example of true 13th-century high tech construction.
 - Explore from moated ramparts, visit a gracefully vaulted chapel and wander the vast green courtyard.
 - After the castle tour, join your guide for a leisurely highlights stroll through quaint Beaumaris village.
 - Savor complimentary coffee and cakes served at a nearby village hotel.

- HELPFUL HINTS
- Wear weather-appropriate clothing; include a light raincoat or umbrella.
 - Flat, comfortable walking shoes are recommended.
 - Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen as needed.

It's also extremely well preserved for its age, despite having endured many a siege over the centuries, not to mention the onslaught of countless camera crews in 1969 as young Prince Charles was crowned Prince of Wales here. Caernarfon's symbolic status was cemented when Edward made sure his son, that original Prince of Wales, was born here in 1284. Duration: 4.00 Hrs Price: €191.00

OVERVIEW

On this excursion, you'll cross Anglesey and the Menai Strait to reach North Wales, and a fabulous fairytale-style castle that's younger than it looks. In a country with over 600 castles, it seems like every aspiring family wanted to have one. And the wealthy Pennant family was no different. So, in 1837 they moved into Penrhyn, their freshly built Norman-style castle that looks like something straight out of the Elizabethan era. Arrayed on 100 acres of prime coastal parkland, it's the object of your tour today – and there's quite a lot to see inside. Now owned by National Trust, the interiors retain the lived-in look of a 19th-century residential castle. The style is richly gothic with a distinctly Moorish flavor, and the home's substantial collection of old masters and family portraits is considered the finest in Wales outside Cardiff's National Museum. A recently restored Victorian kitchen and domestic rooms add further interest to your visit. The grounds are also an impressive example of classic estate living; discover their formal gardens, semi-wooded walks and a Victorian walled garden at your leisure following your guided tour of Penrhyn's interior.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Enjoy a drive across Anglesey and the Menai Strait to Penrhyn Castle along the North Wales coast.
- Tour this 1837 “fantasy castle” built in the style of a much older era and lived in by a prosperous family.
- See the elaborate period interiors, which include a one-ton slate bed made for Queen Victoria, elaborate carvings and plasterwork, and a

This relic is believed to be part of an early long mound yet is unusual in many ways. Neolithic structures like this are found in various parts of the world; in Britain, they are typically associated with the Celts, and cloaked in legend as to the ceremonies and rites they may have

FLH-004 ST. MICHAEL'S MOUNT, JEWEL IN CORNWALL'S CROWN

Date: Sep 03, 2026 Time: 10:30 AM
Duration: 5.00 Hrs Price: €191.00

OVERVIEW

Discover the ancient legacy of St. Michael's Mount, a historic island paradise and sparkling jewel in Cornwall's crown. In Roman times, this tiny islet just off Cornwall's southwest coast was the hub of Iron Age tin and copper trade. It was known as Ictis back then, but according to legend, the Archangel St. Michael dropped by in the year 495 and left his name behind. Norman Conquest invaders in 1066 were struck by the similarity of the Mount to their own Mont St. Michel off Normandy, and their monks were invited to build a similar abbey on the isle's crown. In time that became a fortress, and in more time that became a magnificent residence. Today, St. Michael's Mount is the private home of Lord St. Levan, but much of the Mount is open to the public. You'll wander here at your leisure, with ample time for browsing the harbor shops or photographing the stunning scenery. Eventually, you'll cross over to Marazion, the lovely seaside town on the adjacent coast, for the return to Falmouth. Depending on the tides, it's reached either on foot via a quarter-mile causeway, or by amphibious vehicle or ferry.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Visit Cornwall's answer to Normandy's Mont St. Michel, similarly crowning a jewel-like offshore islet.
- Learn the colorful history of the thousand-year-old castle topping the island – once a monastery, then a fortress, now a noble's private residence.
- Explore the Mount's photogenic harbor area, perhaps hunt for mementos in its delightful shops.
- Cross the quarter-mile stretch between the Mount and the mainland either on foot, by amphibious vehicle or over water – depending on the tide.
