CRUISE TERMINAL ARRIVAL TIME & CHECK-IN

You must bring this boarding pass, either in print or on a mobile device, along with other necessary visas, travel documents, and health-related documentation to the cruise terminal. Arrival during your designated Terminal Arrival Time is essential for a swift embarkation process. Should emergencies or unexpected delays arise, such as flight delays, please call the Local Representative for your embarkation port or utilize the Emergency After-Hours Telephone number if traveling outside regular business hours. Your assigned Terminal Arrival Time and local contact details are provided in the right-hand box.

PASSPORTS

All guests must travel with a passport that is valid 6 months after the disembarkation date. Passport cards or copies of passports are not accepted. Without a valid passport you will be denied boarding. Authorities require that all names (first, middle & last) match your passport exactly.

VISAS & HEALTH-RELATED DOCUMENTATION

Visa and health-related requirements and documentation vary by destination. It is the sole responsibility of each guest to meet the travel and health-related requirements for their cruise and to possess valid documentation throughout their voyage.
